

Personal Safety

Educating children about their rights, teaching them the correct names for body parts and defining attributes of healthy relationships is essential to their personal safety. The more a child understands, the lower the risk of child abuse, assault, harassment and bullying.

This gift provides a Huron County child with education and resource materials to further their knowledge to keep them safe.

