

Safe Places Youth Certification Respect Group Leader Training Application for Sponsored Training Access

The purpose of the Safe Places Sponsored Training Access Application is to provide information to Rural Response for Healthy Children as a request to provide funding to offset the cost of the online Respect Group Activity Leader Training course. The Respect Group Activity Leader Training course is a requirement of the becoming Safe Places Youth Certified in Huron County.

Applicant Details

Name: _____

Contact Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Program/Service Details

Please circle answer for a) and b).

- | | | |
|---|-----|----|
| a) Is the organization not for profit? | YES | NO |
| b) Is the organization volunteer-based? | YES | NO |

c) Briefly explain the program or services you provide to children/youth in our community:

Safe Places Youth Certification Respect Group Leader Training Application for Sponsored Training Access

Outline of Request

There is a $30 fee to access Respect Group training and $10 fee for Rural Response for Healthy Children to process individual applications.

We appreciate it when organizations, who are applying for sponsorship, are able to partially contribute funds.

Total number of people to be trained at your organization: _____

X $40

Total Cost = $ _____

Less your organization's contribution of: - $ _____

Total request from Rural Response = $ _____

General Information

- Rural Response for Healthy Children reviews applications for consideration monthly.
- Following the review process, applicants will be notified in writing, via email, as to whether their application has been declined or approved and the number of training codes granted.
- If the application form is approved, the applicant will receive confirmation of the appropriate RiS 'Pre-Registration code(s)' to which the recipient(s) will have 60 days to complete the online course before the code expires.

Safe Places Youth Certification Respect Group Leader Training Application for Sponsored Training Access

Application Submission Procedure

Applications accepted on an on-going basis.

The goal of this sponsorship is to encourage people to recognize Safe Places – Youth Certified as a quality standard for those who come in to contact with youth. The preferences outlined below may apply to the review process.

- Favorable consideration may be given to volunteer-based or non-profit organizations.
- Favorable consideration may be given to individuals, or charitable non-profits that include a financial contribution towards the training themselves from their own operating budget or fundraising efforts.

Delivery and Format:

- a) By Mail – Applications must be printed or typed to be eligible and submitted to the following address:

Rural Response for Healthy Children
58 Mary St., Box 687
Clinton, ON
N0M 1L0

- b) Or email: mail@rrhc.on.ca

Eligibility

Any individual volunteers or non-profit charity organizations who provide programs or services for children and youth in Huron County are encouraged to apply if they do not have funds available to pay for their Certification.

Requirements:

- a) The applicants must provide a service or directly deliver programs in the community of Huron County to children and youth with the intent to become Safe Places - Youth Certified.
- b) Recipients of sponsored training will have 60 days from the date of the confirmation letter to complete the RiS course before the training expires.

If you are unsure of your eligibility please contact us at 519-482-8777 or mail@rrhc.on.ca

Safe Places Youth Certification Respect Group Leader Training
Application for Sponsored Training Access

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY

Code approval (Yes/No) : _____

Reason:
